- It is important that you understand two of the main influences in rating prominently in the search engines is the length of time the site has been on the internet and the number of incoming links the site maintains. Both are factors that you have control over. With many of the sites it designs, 21 Crows, LLC has given the client the added benefit of search engine optimization and submittal which greatly enhances the ability of a site to be found by customers. You can also be a great force in marketing your site by contacting other businesses and exchanging links. (You add their link to your site and they add your link to their own site) There are many free legitimate link exchange programs in the surrounding region including one based at 21 Crows, LLC that can be contacted.
- Travel guide listings for customers cannot link to a management property. Each link must be for one cabin without outbound links to any other management properties or sites. One link=one cabin.
- A 30 day prior notice is required before cancellations of any service or client will be charged a full amount for the service. If you plan on canceling, I need to know 30 days before your due date regardless of billing date or if you plan to continue or not.
